

WILSON ACCEPTS NOBEL PEACE PRIZE

"If It Were to Be the Last I Could Not Do So," Says President's Letter to Norway

GIFT FORMALLY PRESENTED

By the Associated Press
Washington, Dec. 10.—President Wilson, in his letter accepting the Nobel peace prize, which was read today at the presentation ceremonies at Christiania, said that if this were the last peace prize to be offered he could not accept it, "for mankind has not yet been rid of the unspeakable horror of war." In the years to come, the President added, there will be "abundant opportunity for others to distinguish themselves in the crusade against hate and fear and war."

"In accepting the honor of your award," said the President's letter, "I am moved not only by a profound gratitude for the recognition of my earnest efforts in the cause of peace, but also by a very poignant humility before the vastness of the work still called for by this cause."

"May I not take this occasion to express my respect for the far-sighted wisdom of the founder in arranging for a continuing system of awards? If there were but one such prize, or if this were to be the last, I could not, of course, accept it. For mankind has not yet been rid of the unspeakable horror of war. I am convinced that our generation has, despite its wounds, made notable progress. But it is the better part of wisdom to consider our work as only begun. It will be a continuing labor. In the indefinite course of years before us there will be abundant opportunity for others to distinguish themselves in the crusade against hate and fear and war."

"There is indeed a peculiar fitness in the grouping of these Nobel awards. The cause of peace and the cause of truth are of one family. Even as those who love science and devote their lives to physics or chemistry, even as those who would create new and higher ideals for mankind in literature, even as with those who love peace, there is no limit set. Whatever has been accomplished in the past is petty compared to the glory and promise of the future."

Christiania, Norway, Dec. 10.—Presentation of the Nobel peace prizes for 1919 and 1920, which have been awarded, respectively, to Leon Bourgeois of France, and Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, took place here today. Formal announcement of the awards was made yesterday.

A message from President Wilson, to be read upon the presentation of the 1920 prize, had been received by Albert G. Schmedman, American minister to Norway, and was read by him during the ceremony.

The exercises took place in the presence of members of the cabinet in the House of Parliament, many foreign diplomats being in attendance. J. G. Loveland, former premier, spoke, in handing the prizes to the French and American ministers, who were introduced by the speaker of the chamber, Anders Johnsen Buen.

UN'ALTRA NAVE PER LE FORZE DI FIUME

La Torpediniera "Espero" si Unisce alla Squadra Navale di D'Annunzio

Published and Distributed Under PERMIT NO. 241. Authorized by the act of October 6, 1917, on file at the Postoffice of Philadelphia, Pa.

Trieste, 10 dicembre.—Una energica azione da parte delle autorità navali italiane si attende come risultato della dismissione della torpediniera "Espero," la quale si è unita alle forze navali di Gabriele D'Annunzio in Fiume, nel pomeriggio di ieri. L'incidente ha creato una profonda impressione in tutti i ranghi della marina.

La torpediniera aveva ieri ricevuto ordine di eseguire una ricognizione nell'alto Adriatico e quando raggiunse il limite di tre miglia l'equipaggio si ammutinò ed ordinò al comandante di proseguire per Fiume. Gli ufficiali cercarono convincere i marinai della grave mancanza cui andavano incontro, ma le loro parole non riuscirono a convincerli. Il comandante fu chiuso nella sua cabina e gli altri ufficiali furono costretti a proseguire per Fiume.

Roma, 9 dicembre.—Conferenze relative alla sua missione in America, furono tenuta tra il Senatore Rolando D'Amico, il nuovo ambasciatore italiano per gli Stati Uniti, ed il Presidente della presidenza del Ministro per gli Affari Esteri Conte Sforza.

L'on. Giolitti pregò il nuovo ambasciatore di partire per l'America nel più breve tempo possibile, allo scopo di sistemare, parecchie importanti questioni in pendenza. Dopo la discussione al Senato per il trattato di Rapallo il D'Amico si recerà a Genova per prendere imbarco per New York. Si crede che tale partenza avverrà non più tardi del 25 gennaio prossimo.

Il nuovo ambasciatore fu oggi intrattenuto da Robert Underwood Johnson, ambasciatore in Roma per gli Stati Uniti, dal nuovo cancelliere dell'Ambasciata Americana, Franklin Gunter, e da sua moglie, che inaugurarono la loro nuova residenza a Villa Rasvill con una brillante colazione in onore del D'Amico e di altri ospiti compresi il Conte Sforza e l'on. Porzio, vice presidente al Consiglio dei Ministri.

Roma, 9 dicembre.—Quattro sudditi ungheresi per i quali la polizia italiana ha prove sufficienti per dimostrare che hanno cospirato contro l'ordine pubblico in Italia, sono stati arrestati a Bologna, secondo un annuncio fatto dall'on. Corradini, sotto segretario di Stato per gli Interni, nella seduta di oggi alla Camera.

Socialist Swiss Vice President Berne, Dec. 10.—Gustave Muller, a Socialist, has been elected vice president of the Swiss National Council. Never before has a Socialist been elected to the position.
